IN 2011, SHARED HOPE RELEASED THE NATION'S FIRST LEGAL FRAMEWORK THAT CHALLENGED states to enact laws that comprehensively address the crime of child sex trafficking. When we launched the Protected Innocence Challenge project—and issued the inaugural State Report Cards—the majority of states received an “F” grade, reflecting the reality that many states’ laws failed to even recognize the crime of child sex trafficking. Since then, we have been working to lay the foundation for transformational policy, practice, and cultural change by supporting state legislators and stakeholders in identifying gaps in the fabric of laws needed to address this heinous crime. By 2019, no state received an “F” grade, and a majority of the country received an “A” or “B.”

	SCORE	GRADE	7.5	23	15	6	15.5	14.5

2011	60.5	D	5	12	11	5.5	17.5	9.5

From 2011 to 2019, Iowa raised their grade under the Protected Innocence Challenge from a “D” to a “B,” enacting legislation aimed at holding offenders accountable and protecting survivors.

A SHIFT IN FOCUS

THE PROTECTED INNOCENCE CHALLENGE PROJECT WAS SHARED HOPE'S VISION FOR MOBILIZING collective state action to ensure national change. Building on the progress already made under that project—while preserving its most fundamental components—we released a new, advanced legislative framework in 2020 that focuses on new policy priorities reflective of feedback and research collected from the field. This framework is meant to challenge states to take the next step in the fight against sex trafficking by focusing on the area of law where the largest gaps remain—victim protections.

TIER RANKING

Another way the Report Cards on Child & Youth Sex Trafficking will measure progress is through a Tier system that will help states understand how they are doing compared to other states. Especially at this stage where grades are clustered at lower levels, the Tiers help to show states where they are on a spectrum. This provides another way for states to evaluate the progress they make beyond changes to their letter grade.

GRADES ARE BASED SOLELY ON AN ANALYSIS OF STATE STATUTES. While we recognize the critical importance of non-legislative responses to propel progress, grading on statutory law provides a clear mechanism for evaluating policy goals across all states while ensuring that survivor-centered reforms are an enduring part of states' responses.

STATE HIGHLIGHTS:

- Between 2021-2023, raised score by 7 points.
- Convicted offenders of sex trafficking and CSEC are required to pay fees that are deposited into a special fund to support access to specialized services for survivors.
- Extended foster care services are available to youth under 23 years of age, providing an especially vulnerable group of young people access to services and care that may mitigate risk factors to harm, including exploitation.
- State law provides child sex trafficking victim-witnesses with protections when participating in criminal justice processes, including access to a victim advocate and other support persons, as well as judicial discretion as to what interrogation methods are utilized in court proceedings to protect child victim-witnesses under 14 years of age.

SAFE HARBOR STATUS:

One of 21 states that fail to prohibit the criminalization of minors for prostitution offenses, thus allowing commercially sexually exploited minors to be held criminally accountable for their own victimization.

Issue			Grade	Score	Summary
	1. Criminal Provisions		B	$\frac{15}{17.5}$	Policy goals accomplished related to buyer accountability under the trafficking law, buyer and trafficker accountability under state CSEC laws, mistake of age defenses, business entity liability under the trafficking law, and financial penalties. Gap remains related to decoy defenses.
	2. Identification of and Response to Victims		F	$\frac{10}{27.5}$	Policy goals accomplished related to foreign national victims and child abuse definitions. Gaps remain related to third party control, screening through child welfare and the juvenile justice system, non-criminalization for prostitution offenses, expanded non-criminalization, juvenile court jurisdiction, and non-caregiver trafficking cases.
	3. Continuum of Care		F	$\frac{5.5}{15}$	Policy goal accomplished related to extended foster care services. Gaps remain related to community-based services, MDT responses, services through child welfare and the juvenile justice system, and appropriations.
	4. Access to Justice for Trafficking Survivors		F	$\frac{6.5}{15}$	Policy goal accomplished related to restitution. Gaps remain related to civil orders of protection, crime victims' compensation, vacatur, civil remedies, and statutes of limitation.
	5. Tools for a Victim-Centered Criminal Justice Response		C	$\frac{7.5}{10}$	Policy goals accomplished related to alternatives to live, in-court testimony, victim-witness supports, and privileged communications. Gap remains related to hearsay exceptions.
	6. Prevention and Training		F	$\frac{4}{15}$	Gaps remain in all areas, including training for child welfare, juvenile justice agencies, law enforcement, prosecutors, and school personnel as well as prevention education in schools.
EXTRA CREDIT		Youth		1	Protection related to privileged communications is extended to sex trafficked youth.
		Child Labor Trafficking		4	Protections related to financial penalties, restitution, alternatives to live, in-court testimony, and privileged communications are extended to child labor trafficking victims.

WHAT IS SAFE HARBOR?

“Safe Harbor” refers to laws that insulate survivors from a punitive response and direct them toward funded, comprehensive, and protective services.

WHY SAFE HARBOR?

These laws ensure survivors of child and youth sex trafficking are not involved in the juvenile or criminal justice system and receive trauma-informed care. Appropriate identification and access to services are vital to creating a just response for survivors of child and youth sex trafficking.

SAFE HARBOR LAWS

Comprehensive Safe Harbor laws
SHOULD PROHIBIT ARRESTING, DETAINING, CHARGING, & PROSECUTING
all minors for prostitution offenses, regardless of whether a finding of trafficking victimization is made, and, instead, require law enforcement to direct child and youth survivors to SPECIALIZED SERVICES & CARE.

Safe Harbor laws
SHOULD ALSO PROHIBIT CRIMINALIZATION
of child sex trafficking survivors for other crimes committed as a result of their victimization.

Status	Safe Harbor Policy Goal
 Not met	The definition of child sex trafficking victim in the criminal code includes all commercially sexually exploited children without requiring third party control (see Policy Goal 2.1 for further analysis and Issue Brief 2.1 for background).
 Not met	State law mandates child welfare agencies to conduct trauma-informed CSEC screening for children at risk of sex trafficking (see Policy Goal 2.3 for further analysis and Issue Brief 2.3 for background).
 Not met	State law mandates juvenile justice agencies to conduct trauma-informed CSEC screening of children at risk of sex trafficking (see Policy Goal 2.4 for further analysis and Issue Brief 2.4 for background).
 Not met	State law prohibits the criminalization of minors under 18 for prostitution offenses and establishes a services-referral protocol as an alternative to arrest (see Policy Goal 2.5 for further analysis and Issue Brief 2.5 for background).
 Partially met	State law prohibits the criminalization of child sex trafficking victims for status offenses, and misdemeanor and non-violent felony offenses committed as a result of their trafficking victimization (see Policy Goal 2.6 for further analysis and Issue Brief 2.6 for background).
 Partially met	State law prohibits the criminalization of child sex trafficking victims for sex trafficking and commercial sexual exploitation offenses, including accomplice and co-conspirator liability, committed as a result of their trafficking victimization (see Policy Goal 2.7 for further analysis and Issue Brief 2.7 for background).
 Not met	State law provides child sex trafficking victims with an affirmative defense to violent felonies committed as a result of their trafficking victimization (see Policy Goal 2.8 for further analysis and Issue Brief 2.8 for background).
 Not met	State law mandates a process for coordinating access to specialized services for child sex trafficking victims that does not require involvement in child-serving systems (see Policy Goal 3.1 for further analysis and Issue Brief 3.1 for background).
 Not met	State funding is appropriated to support specialized services and a continuum of care for sex trafficked children regardless of system involvement (see Policy Goal 3.6 for further analysis and Issue Brief 3.6 for background).

STATE SUMMARY:

Iowa law does not prohibit the criminalization of minors for prostitution offenses, nor does it facilitate access to, or provide funding for, community-based services, leaving survivors vulnerable to re-traumatization caused by punitive responses and potentially underserved or disconnected from resources that are necessary to promote healing. Further, Iowa limits the definition of child sex trafficking victim by requiring third party control, preventing commercially sexually exploited children who are unable or unwilling to identify a trafficker, as well as those who are not under the control of a trafficker, from accessing protections and relief that are specifically designed for sex trafficked children.

This report provides a thorough analysis of Iowa’s statutes related to offender accountability and victim protections while providing recommendations for addressing gaps in those statutes.¹ This report does not analyze case law, agency rules, or regulations, nor does it analyze practices or initiatives that exist outside of statutory law. However, stakeholders were invited to share non-statutory responses to paint a fuller picture of the state’s anti-child sex trafficking response; where such responses were submitted, they are included as “Insights from the Field” under the respective policy goal but are not factored into the state’s grade.

ISSUE 1: Criminal Provisions

Policy Goal 1.1

The child sex trafficking law is expressly applicable to buyers of commercial sex with any minor under 18.

● FULLY MET

Iowa Code § 710A.2² (Human trafficking) expressly applies to buyers of commercial sex with a minor based on the definition of “human trafficking.” Pursuant to Iowa Code § 710A.2(1), (4),

1. A person who knowingly engages in human trafficking is guilty of a class “B” felony, except that if the victim is under the age of eighteen, the person is guilty of a class “A” felony.

4. A person who knowingly engages in human trafficking by soliciting services or benefiting from the services of a victim is guilty of a class “B” felony, except that if the victim is under the age of eighteen, the person is guilty of a class “A” felony.

Iowa Code § 710A.1(4)(b) (Definitions) defines “human trafficking” to include “knowingly purchasing or attempting to purchase services³ involving commercial sexual activity⁴ from a victim or another person engaged in human trafficking.”

¹ Evaluations of state laws are based on legislation enacted as of July 1, 2023.

² The text of Iowa Code § 710A.2 cited here and elsewhere in this report includes amendments made by the enactment of House File 630 during the 2023-2024 Regular Session of the Iowa state legislature (effective July 1, 2023).

⁴ Iowa Code § 710A.1(1) defines “commercial sexual activity” as “any sex act or sexually explicit performance for which anything of value is given, promised to, or received by any person and includes, but is not limited to, prostitution, participation in the production of pornography, and performance in strip clubs.”

Policy Goal 1.2

Commercial sexual exploitation of children (CSEC) laws⁵ specifically criminalize purchasing or soliciting commercial sex with any minor under 18.

● FULLY MET

Iowa's CSEC laws criminalize both purchasing and soliciting commercial sex with a minor. Pursuant to Iowa Code § 725.1(2)(b) (Prostitution), "[a] person who purchases or offers to purchase services as a partner in a sex act from a person who is under the age of eighteen commits a class 'D' felony." Further, Iowa Code § 710A.2A (Solicitation of commercial sexual activity) states,

A person shall not entice, coerce, or recruit, or attempt to entice, coerce, or recruit, either a person who is under the age of eighteen or a law enforcement officer or agent who is representing that the officer or agent is under the age of eighteen, to engage in a commercial sexual activity

Commercial sexual exploitation of children (CSEC) laws⁶ apply to traffickers and protect all minors under 18.

● FULLY MET

Iowa's CSEC laws address an array of trafficker conduct. Pursuant to Iowa Code § 725.3(2) (Pandering),

A person who persuades, arranges, coerces, or otherwise causes a minor to become a prostitute or to return to the practice of prostitution after having abandoned it, or keeps or maintains any premises for the purpose of prostitution involving minors or knowingly shares in the income from such premises knowing the character and content of such income, commits a class "C" felony.

Further, Iowa Code § 710A.2A (Solicitation of commercial sexual activity) states,

A person shall not entice, coerce, or recruit, or attempt to entice, coerce, or recruit, either a person who is under the age of eighteen or a law enforcement officer or agent who is representing that the officer or agent is under the age of eighteen, to engage in a commercial sexual activity. A person who violates this section commits a class "D" felony.

Lastly, pursuant to Iowa Code § 725.2(2) (Pimping),

A person who solicits a patron for a prostitute who is under the age of eighteen, or who knowingly takes or shares in the earnings of a prostitute who is under the age of eighteen, or who knowingly furnishes a room or other place to be used for the purposes of prostitution of a prostitute who is under the age of eighteen, whether for compensation or not, commits a class "C" felony.

⁶ See supra note 5 for a full discussion on the purpose of analyzing trafficking laws separately from CSEC laws throughout this report.

Policy Goal 1.4 Mistake of age is not an available defense in child sex trafficking prosecutions.

● FULLY MET

Iowa law expressly prohibits a mistake of age defense in prosecutions for child sex trafficking. Pursuant to Iowa Code § 710A.2(10) (Human trafficking), “A person’s ignorance of the age of the victim or a belief that the victim was older is not a defense to a violation of this section.”

Policy Goal 1.5 Use of a law enforcement decoy is not an available defense in child sex trafficking cases.

○ NOT MET

Iowa law does not prohibit a defense to prosecution based on the use of a law enforcement decoy posing as a minor to investigate trafficking crimes.⁷

- 1.5.1 Recommendation: Statutorily prohibit an offender from raising a defense based on the use of a law enforcement decoy posing as a minor to investigate a child sex trafficking crime. (See Issue Brief 1.5.)

Policy Goal 1.6 Business entities can be held criminally liable for conduct that violates the trafficking law.

● FULLY MET

Iowa law allows business entities to be held criminally liable for conduct that violates the trafficking law. Specifically, Iowa Code § 710A.2(1)–(7) (Human trafficking) prohibits a person from knowingly engaging in human trafficking by engaging in specified conduct or using certain means.⁸ Iowa Code § 710A.1(4)(a) (Definitions) defines “human trafficking” to include the following:

[P]articipating in a venture to recruit, harbor, transport, supply provisions, or obtain a person for any of the following purposes:

- (1) Forced labor or service that results in involuntary servitude, peonage, debt bondage, or slavery.
- (2) Commercial sexual activity through the use of force, fraud, or coercion, except that if the trafficked person is under the age of eighteen, the commercial sexual activity need not involve force, fraud, or coercion.

Iowa Code § 710A.1(12) defines “venture” as “any group of two or more persons associated in fact, whether or not a legal entity.” Accordingly, business entities can be held liable for a trafficking violation.

⁷ Further, state law expressly allows for the admission evidence regarding mistake of fact. Iowa Code § 701.6 (Ignorance or mistake) states,

All persons are presumed to know the law. Evidence of an accused person’s ignorance or mistake as to a matter of either fact or law shall be admissible in any case where it shall tend to prove the existence or nonexistence of some element of the crime with which the person is charged.

⁸ The substantive provisions of Iowa Code § 710A.2(1)–(7) can be found under the “State Laws Addressing Child Sex Trafficking” section of the appendix located at the end of this report.

Policy Goal 1.7

State law mandates that financial penalties are levied on sex trafficking and CSEC offenders and are directed to a victim services fund.

● FULLY MET

Iowa law levies financial penalties on sex trafficking and CSEC offenders; although the mandatory surcharges will be directed into victim services funds, a percentage of forfeited assets is not.

Regarding fees, Iowa Code § 911.2A (Human trafficking victim surcharge) requires sex trafficking and CSEC offenders to pay a $1,000 surcharge; it states,

1. In addition to any other surcharge, the court shall assess a human trafficking victim surcharge of one thousand dollars if an adjudication of guilt or a deferred judgment has been entered for a criminal violation of section 725.1 [Prostitution], subsection 2, or section 710A.2 [Human trafficking], 725.2 [Pimping], or 725.3 [Pandering].
2. In the event of multiple offenses, the surcharge shall be imposed for each applicable offense.
3. The surcharge shall be remitted by the clerk of court as provided in section 602.8108, subsection 6.

Further, Iowa Code § 911.2B (Domestic and sexual abuse crimes surcharge) requires those convicted of human trafficking, stalking, or certain sexual offenses to pay a $90 surcharge; it states,

1. In addition to any other surcharge, the court shall assess a domestic and sexual abuse crimes surcharge of ninety dollars if an adjudication of guilt or a deferred judgment has been entered for a violation of section 708.2A [Domestic abuse assault – Mandatory minimums, penalties enhanced – extension of no-contact order], 708.11 [Stalking], or 710A.2 [Human trafficking], or chapter 709 [Sexual abuse], or if a defendant is held in contempt of court for violating a domestic abuse protective order issued pursuant to chapter 236.
2. In the event of multiple offenses, the surcharge shall be imposed for each applicable offense.
3. The surcharge shall be remitted by the clerk of court as provided in section 602.8108, subsection 6.

Disposition of the human trafficking victim surcharge and the domestic and sexual abuse crime surcharge is governed by Iowa Code § 602.8108 (Distribution of court revenue), which requires funds to be deposited into the Human Trafficking Victim Fund or the Address Confidentiality Program Revolving Fund, respectively. Specifically, Iowa Code § 602.8108(5)–(6) provides,

5. The clerk of the district court shall remit all moneys collected from the assessment of the human trafficking victim surcharge provided in section 911.2A to the state court administrator no later than the fifteenth day of each month for deposit in the human trafficking victim fund created in section 915.95.⁹
6. The clerk of the district court shall remit all moneys collected from the assessment of the surcharge provided in section 911.2B to the state court administrator for deposit in the address confidentiality program revolving fund created in section 9.8.

⁹ Pursuant to Iowa Code § 915.95 (Human trafficking victim fund),

A fund is created as a separate fund in the state treasury. Moneys deposited in the fund shall be administered by the department and dedicated to and used for awarding moneys to programs that provide services and support to victims of human trafficking under section 710A.2, including public outreach and awareness programs and service provider training programs, and for reimbursing the Iowa law enforcement academy for domestic abuse and human trafficking training. Notwithstanding section 8.33, any balance in the fund on June 30 of any fiscal year shall not revert to the general fund of the state.

Regarding asset forfeiture, Iowa Code § 809A.3(1) (Conduct giving rise to forfeiture) broadly provides for forfeiture in cases involving serious or aggravated misdemeanors or felonies. Under Iowa Code § 809A.4(2)–(6)(a) (Property subject to forfeiture), property subject to forfeiture includes the following:

 - a. All property, except as provided in paragraph “b”, including the whole of any lot or tract of land and any appurtenances or improvements to real property, including homesteads that are otherwise exempt from judicial sale pursuant to section 561.16, that is either:
 - (1) Furnished or intended to be furnished by a person in an exchange that constitutes conduct giving rise to forfeiture.
 - (2) Used or intended to be used in any manner or part to facilitate¹⁰ conduct giving rise to forfeiture.
3. All proceeds of any conduct giving rise to forfeiture.
5. Any interest or security in, claim against, or property or contractual right of any kind affording a source of control over any enterprise that a person has established, operated, controlled, conducted, or participated in the conduct or through conduct giving rise to forfeiture.
6.
 - a. Any property of a person up to the value of property which is either of the following:
 - (1) Described in subsection 2 that the person owned or possessed for the purpose of a use described in subsection 2.
 - (2) Described in subsection 3 and is proceeds of conduct engaged in by the person or for which the person is criminally responsible.

Allocation of forfeited assets is governed by Iowa Code § 809A.17(2)–(5) (Allocation of forfeited property), which states,

2. Forfeited property not needed as evidence in a criminal case shall be delivered to the department of justice, or, upon written authorization of the attorney general or the attorney general’s designee, the property may be destroyed, sold, or delivered to an appropriate agency for disposal in accordance with this section.
3. Forfeited property may be used by the department of justice in the enforcement of the criminal law. The department may give, sell, or trade property to any other state agency or to any other law enforcement agency within the state if, in the opinion of the attorney general, it will enhance law enforcement within the state.
4. Forfeited property which is not used by the department of justice in the enforcement of the law may be requisitioned by the department of public safety or any law enforcement agency within the state for use in enforcing the criminal laws of this state. Forfeited property not requisitioned may be delivered to the director of the department of administrative services to be disposed of in the same manner as property received pursuant to section 8A.325.
5. Notwithstanding subsection 1, 2, 3, or 4, the following apply:
 - e. If the forfeited property is cash or proceeds from the sale of real property, the distribution of the forfeited property shall be as follows:
 - (1) The department of justice shall not retain more than ten percent of the gross sale of any forfeited real property. The balance of the proceeds shall be distributed to the seizing agency for use by the agency or for division among law enforcement agencies and county attorneys pursuant to any agreement entered into by the seizing agency.

(2) The department of justice shall not retain more than ten percent of any forfeited cash. The balance shall be distributed to the seizing agency for use by the agency or for division among law enforcement agencies and county attorneys pursuant to any agreement entered into by the seizing agency.

(3) In the event of a cash forfeiture in excess of four hundred thousand dollars, the distribution of forfeited cash shall be as follows:

(a) Forty-five percent shall be retained by the seizing agency.

(b) Forty-five percent shall be distributed to other law enforcement agencies within the region of the seizing agency.

(c) Ten percent shall be retained by the department of justice.

As noted above, however, state asset forfeiture laws do not direct a percentage of a sex trafficking or CSEC offender's forfeited assets into a victim services fund.

EXTRA CREDIT

Iowa law levies financial penalties on child labor trafficking offenders and directs those financial penalties into a victim services fund. Iowa Code §§ 911.2A, 602.8108, 915.95.

ISSUE 2: Identification of & Response to Victims

Policy Goal 2.1

The definition of child sex trafficking victim in the criminal code includes all commercially sexually exploited children without requiring third party control.

○ NOT MET

The definition of child sex trafficking victim does not include all commercially sexually exploited children. Iowa Code § 710A.1(13) (Definitions) defines “victim” as “a person subjected to human trafficking.” Pursuant to Iowa Code § 710A.1(4),

a. “Human trafficking” means participating in a venture to recruit, harbor, transport, supply provisions, or obtain a person for any of the following purposes:

(2) Commercial sexual activity through the use of force fraud, or coercion, except that if the trafficked person is under the age of eighteen, the commercial sexual activity need not involve force, fraud, or coercion.

b. “Human trafficking” also means knowingly purchasing or attempting to purchase services involving commercial sexual activity from a victim or another person engaged in human trafficking.

Although the definition of “commercial sexual activity”¹¹ under Iowa Code § 710A.1(1) is broad enough to include buyer conduct, the definition of “services” creates a third party control requirement. Iowa Code § 710A.1(10) defines “services” as “an ongoing relationship between a person and the actor in which the person performs activities under the supervision of or for the benefit of the actor, including commercial sexual activity and sexually explicit performance.” Accordingly, the victim must be engaged in an “ongoing relationship” with a trafficker who supervises and/or benefits from the child’s exploitation.

As such, third party control is required to establish the crime of child sex trafficking, thereby excluding commercially sexually exploited children who are not under the control of a trafficker from the definition of sex trafficking victim.

- 2.1.1 Recommendation: Amend state law to remove third party control requirements that narrow the definition of child sex trafficking victim.¹² (See Issue Brief 2.1.)

¹² See generally Shared Hope Int’l, Eliminating the Third Party Control Barrier to Identifying Juvenile Sex Trafficking Victims, JuST Response Policy Paper (August 2015), http://sharedhope.org/wp-content/uploads/2015/08/Policy-Paper_Eliminating-Third-Party-Control_Final1.pdf (discussing need to include all commercially sexually exploited children within sex trafficking definitions and the corresponding need to include buyer conduct in core sex trafficking offenses regardless of whether the victim is under control of a third party).

Policy Goal 2.2

State law provides policy guidance to facilitate access to services and assistance for trafficked foreign national children.

● FULLY MET

Iowa law provides policy guidance that facilitates access to services and assistance for trafficked foreign national children. Specifically, Iowa Code § 915.51 (General rights of human trafficking victims) clarifies that child victims of sex trafficking are afforded the same rights and benefits as other crime victims regardless of immigration status, stating,

Victims of human trafficking, as defined in section 710A.1 [Definitions], shall have the same rights as other victims of a crime, including the right to receive victim compensation pursuant to section 915.84 [Application for compensation], regardless of their immigration status.

Iowa Code Chapter 915 (Victim rights) enumerates the rights of crime victims. Services are included under Iowa Code § 915.35(1), (2) (Child victim services), which states,

1. As used in this section, “victim” means a minor under the age of eighteen who has been sexually abused or subjected to any other unlawful sexual conduct under chapter 709 [Sexual abuse], 710A [Human trafficking], or 726 [Protection of the family and dependent persons] or who has been the subject of a forcible felony.
2. A professional licensed or certified by the state to provide immediate or short-term medical services or mental health services to a victim may provide the services without the prior consent or knowledge of the victim’s parents or guardians.

Policy Goal 2.3

State law mandates child welfare agencies to conduct trauma-informed CSEC screening for children at risk of sex trafficking.

○ NOT MET

Iowa law does not require child welfare to conduct trauma-informed CSEC screening of system-involved children and youth who are at risk of sex trafficking. However, Iowa Code § 232.71B(3)(c) (Duties of the department upon receipt of a report) outlines certain requirements for the Department of Health and Human Services to support identification of sex trafficking victimization among children within the care or supervision of the Department. Iowa Code § 232.71B(3)(c) states,

If the department has reasonable cause to believe that a child under the placement, care, or supervision of the department is, or is at risk of becoming, a sex trafficking victim, the department shall do all of the following:

- (1) Identify the child as a sex trafficking victim or at risk of becoming a sex trafficking victim and include documentation in the child’s department records.
 - (2) Refer the child for appropriate services.
 - (3) Refer the child identified as a sex trafficking victim, within twenty-four hours, to the appropriate law enforcement agency having jurisdiction to investigate the allegation.
- 2.3.1 Recommendation: Statutorily require child welfare to screen system-involved children and youth at risk of sex trafficking for experiences of commercial sexual exploitation. (See Issue Brief 2.3.)

Policy Goal 2.4 State law mandates juvenile justice agencies to conduct trauma-informed CSEC screening of children at risk of sex trafficking.

○ NOT MET

Iowa law does not require juvenile justice agencies to conduct trauma-informed CSEC screening of children and youth who are at risk of sex trafficking.

2.4.1 Recommendation: Statutorily require juvenile justice agencies to screen children and youth who are at risk of sex trafficking for experiences of commercial sexual exploitation. (See Issue Brief 2.4.)

Policy Goal 2.5 State law prohibits the criminalization of minors under 18 for prostitution offenses and establishes a services-referral protocol as an alternative to arrest.

○ NOT MET

Iowa law does not prohibit the criminalization of minors for prostitution offenses. Pursuant to Iowa Code § 725.1(1)(a), (b)¹³ (Prostitution),

- a. Except as provided in subsection “b,” a person who sells or offers for sale the person’s services as a partner in a sex act commits an aggravated misdemeanor.
- b. If the person who sells or offers for sale the person’s services as a partner in a sex act is under the age of eighteen, the county attorney may elect, in lieu of filing a petition alleging that the person has committed a delinquent act, to refer that person to the department of health and human services for the possible filing of a petition alleging that the person is a child in need of assistance.

While some commercially sexually exploited minors arrested for, or charged with, prostitution may be diverted away from the juvenile justice system, they must first endure a punitive process before protections and a referral to child welfare is provided. Additionally, such protections are only extended at the county attorney’s discretion, thus allowing some minors to be prosecuted for prostitution. As such, Iowa law fails to protect all minors from punitive responses for engagement in commercial sex.

2.5.1 Recommendation: Amend state law to prohibit the criminalization of all minors for prostitution offenses and establish a services-referral protocol in response to minors engaged in commercial sex. (See Issue Brief 2.5.)

Policy Goal 2.6 State law prohibits the criminalization of child sex trafficking victims for status offenses, and misdemeanor and non-violent felony offenses committed as a result of their trafficking victimization.

🕒 PARTIALLY MET

Although Iowa law does not prohibit the criminalization of child sex trafficking victims for status offenses or for misdemeanors or non-violent felonies committed as a result of their trafficking victimization, an affirmative defense may be available. Specifically, Iowa Code § 710A.3 (Affirmative defense) states,

It shall be an affirmative defense, in addition to any other affirmative defenses for which a defendant may be eligible, to a prosecution for a criminal violation of section 152C.5B [License and government-issued identification – Peace officer request], 152C.5C [Announcements to the public], 157.4A [License and government-issued identification – Peace officer request], 157.4B [Announcements to the public], 710A.2 [Human trafficking], 710A.2A [Solicitation of commercial sexual activity], or 710A.2B [Premises used for human trafficking], that the violation directly resulted from the defendant’s status as a victim of any human trafficking crime under chapter 710A [Human Trafficking].

- 2.6.1 Recommendation: Amend state law to prohibit the criminalization of child sex trafficking victims for status offenses, and misdemeanors and non-violent felonies committed as a result of their trafficking victimization. (See Issue Brief 2.6.)

Policy Goal 2.7 State law prohibits the criminalization of child sex trafficking victims for sex trafficking and commercial sexual exploitation offenses, including accomplice and co-conspirator liability, committed as a result of their trafficking victimization.

 PARTIALLY MET

Although Iowa law does not prohibit the criminalization of child sex trafficking victims for sex trafficking and commercial sexual exploitation offenses, including accomplice and co-conspirator liability, committed as a result of their trafficking victimization, an affirmative defense may be available. Specifically, Iowa Code § 710A.3 (Affirmative defense) states,

It shall be an affirmative defense, in addition to any other affirmative defenses for which a defendant may be eligible, to a prosecution for a criminal violation of section . . . 710A.2 [Human trafficking], 710A.2A [Solicitation of commercial sexual activity], or 710A.2B [Premises used for human trafficking], that the violation directly resulted from the defendant’s status as a victim of any human trafficking crime under chapter 710A [Human Trafficking].

Further, Iowa Code § 725.2(3) (Pimping) provides commercially sexually exploited children and youth with an affirmative defense to pimping charges, stating,

It shall be an affirmative defense to a prosecution of a person under the age of twenty-one for a violation of this section that the person was allowed, permitted, or encouraged by an adult having influence or control of the person to engage in acts prohibited pursuant to section 725.1 [Prostitution], subsection 1, while the person was under the age of eighteen.

- 2.7.1 Recommendation: Amend state law to prohibit the criminalization of child sex trafficking victims for sex trafficking and commercial sexual exploitation offenses, including accomplice and co-conspirator liability, committed as a result of their trafficking victimization. (See Issue Brief 2.7.)

Policy Goal 2.8 State law provides child sex trafficking victims with an affirmative defense to violent felonies committed as a result of their trafficking victimization.

 NOT MET

Iowa law does not provide child sex trafficking victims with an affirmative defense to violent felonies committed as a result of their trafficking victimization.

- 2.8.1 Recommendation: Enact a law that provides child sex trafficking victims with an affirmative defense to violent felonies committed as a result of their trafficking victimization. (See Issue Brief 2.8.)

Policy Goal 2.9

Juvenile court jurisdiction provides for a developmentally appropriate response.

 PARTIALLY MET

Iowa law does not provide age-appropriate juvenile court responses for all minors accused of engaging in juvenile or criminal conduct. While juvenile court jurisdiction extends to all minors under 18 years of age, Iowa law does not establish a minimum age for jurisdictional purposes, permits direct file and transfers to criminal court in cases involving minors previously transferred in a prior matter, and fails to require courts to consider the impact of trauma or past victimization in making discretionary transfer determinations.

	Minimum Age of Juvenile Court Jurisdiction	Maximum Age for Charging Youth in Juvenile Court	Automatic Transfers or Permits Direct File	Discretionary Transfers	Requirement for Court to Consider Trauma or Past Victimization
Summary	None. “Child” is defined as “a person under eighteen years of age.”	17.	Yes. Minors: (1) charged with certain simple misdemeanor offenses; (2) 16+ years of age charged with certain offenses; or (3) 16+ years of age previously transferred to criminal court in a prior case.	Yes. Minors: (1) 14 charged with any offense; or (2) 10+ who commit certain offenses may be transferred to criminal court for prosecution as a “youthful offender.”	No.
Relevant Statute(s)	Iowa Code § 232.2(5) (Definitions)	Iowa Code § 232.2(5) (Definitions); Iowa Code § 232.8(1)(a) (Jurisdiction)	Iowa Code § 232.8(1)(b)–(c) (Jurisdiction); Iowa Code § 232.45A(2) (Waiver to and conviction by district court – Processing)	Iowa Code § 232.8(3)(a) (Jurisdiction); Iowa Code § 232.45(7) (Waiver hearing and waiver of jurisdiction)	Iowa Code § 232.45(8)–(9) (Waiver hearing and waiver of jurisdiction)

Consequently, Iowa law fails to provide age-appropriate juvenile court responses to all minors, including child sex trafficking victims, as governing state statute: (1) does not establish a minimum age for juvenile court jurisdiction that aligns with domestic standards; (2) allows minors to be subject to direct file and automatic transfers; and (3) does not require the juvenile court to consider past trafficking victimization or trauma when making a transfer determination.

- 2.9.1 Recommendation: Statutorily require age-appropriate juvenile court responses for all children accused of engaging in juvenile or criminal conduct. (See Issue Brief 2.9.)

Policy Goal 2.10 State law defines child abuse to include child sex trafficking to ensure access to child welfare services.

● FULLY MET

Iowa law defines “child abuse” and “abuse” to include child sex trafficking and commercial sexual exploitation of children. Iowa Code § 232.68(2)(a) (Definitions) states in part,

“Child abuse” or “abuse” means:

(5) The acts or omissions of a person responsible for the care of a child which allow, permit, or encourage the child to engage in acts prohibited pursuant to section 725.1 [Prostitution].

Notwithstanding section 702.5 [defines child as person under 14 years of age],¹⁴ acts or omissions under this subparagraph include an act or omission referred to in this subparagraph with or to a person under the age of eighteen years.

(11) The recruitment, harboring, transportation, provision, obtaining, patronizing, or soliciting of a child for the purpose of commercial sexual activity as defined in section 710A.1 [Human trafficking].

Policy Goal 2.11 State law allows for child welfare involvement in sex trafficking cases that do not involve caregiver fault and provides for an alternative, specialized response in those cases.

● PARTIALLY MET

Iowa law provides access to child welfare services for child sex trafficking victims regardless of parent or caregiver fault, but state law does not provide for a specialized response in those cases. Specifically, the definition of “child abuse or abuse” under Iowa Code § 232.68(2)(a)(11) (Definitions) expressly includes child sex trafficking and, unlike other acts constituting abuse, does not limit conduct to acts committed by a caregiver. As noted above, however, a specialized response is not statutorily required for children reported to child welfare due to trafficking victimization perpetrated by a non-caregiver trafficker.

2.11.1 Recommendation: Statutorily provide for a specialized response in non-caregiver child sex trafficking cases. (See Issue Brief 2.11.)

¹⁴ Iowa Code § 702.5 (Child) states, “For purposes of Title XVI, unless another age is specified, a ‘child’ is any person under the age of fourteen years.”

ISSUE 3: Continuum of Care

Policy Goal 3.1

State law mandates a process for coordinating access to specialized services for child sex trafficking victims that does not require involvement in child-serving systems.

○ NOT MET

Iowa law does not mandate a process for coordinating access to specialized, community-based services for child sex trafficking victims that does not require involvement in a child-serving system.

- 3.1.1 Recommendation: Statutorily mandate a process for coordinating access to specialized services for child sex trafficking victims that does not require involvement in child-serving systems. (See Issue Brief 3.1.)

Policy Goal 3.2

State law provides for a survivor-centered multi-disciplinary team response to child sex trafficking cases.

● PARTIALLY MET

Although child sex trafficking victims could receive a multi-disciplinary team (MDT) response through an existing MDT, Iowa law does not require a child sex trafficking-specific MDT response. Pursuant to Iowa Code § 915.35(4)¹⁵ (Child victim services),

- a. A child protection assistance team involving the county attorney, law enforcement personnel, and personnel of the department of health and human services shall be established for each county by the county attorney. However, by mutual agreement, two or more county attorneys may establish a single child protection assistance team to cover a multicounty area. A child protection assistance team, to the greatest extent possible, may be consulted in cases involving a forcible felony against a child who is less than age fourteen in which the suspected offender is the person responsible for the care of a child, as defined in section 232.68 [Definitions]. A child protection assistance team may also be utilized in cases involving a violation of chapter 709 [Sexual abuse] or 726 [Protection of the family and dependent persons] or other crime committed upon a victim¹⁶ as defined in subsection 1.
- b. A child protection assistance team may also consult with or include juvenile court officers, medical and mental health professionals, physicians or other hospital-based health professionals, court-appointed special advocates, guardians ad litem, and members of a multidisciplinary team¹⁷ created by the department of

¹⁶ Iowa Code § 915.35(1) (Child victim services) defines “victim” in part as “a minor under the age of eighteen who has been sexually abused or subjected to any other unlawful sexual conduct under chapter . . . 710A [Human trafficking].”

¹⁷ Iowa Code § 235A.13(9) (Definitions) defines “multidisciplinary team” to include the following:

[A] group of individuals who possess knowledge and skills related to the diagnosis, assessment, and disposition of child abuse cases and who are professionals practicing in the disciplines of medicine, nursing, public health, substance health and human services for child abuse assessments. A child protection assistance team may work cooperatively with the early childhood Iowa area board established under chapter 256I [Early childhood Iowa initiatives]. The child protection assistance team shall work with the department of health and human services in accordance with section 232.71B [Duties of the department upon receipt of the report], subsection 3, in developing the protocols for prioritizing the actions taken in response to child abuse assessments and for law enforcement agencies working jointly with the department at the local level in processes for child abuse assessments. The department of justice may provide training and other assistance to support the activities of a child protection assistance team.

- 3.2.1 Recommendation: Statutorily require a multi-disciplinary team response specific to child sex trafficking victims. (See Issue Brief 3.2.)

Policy Goal 3.3 State law requires child welfare to provide access to specialized services for identified sex trafficked children and youth.

 PARTIALLY MET

Although Iowa law requires the Department of Health and Human Services to refer a child sex trafficking victim for appropriate services, this protection only applies to children who are already system-involved. Specifically, Iowa Code § 232.70(10) (Reporting procedures)¹⁸ provides,

If the department has reasonable cause to believe that a child under the placement, care, or supervision of the department is, or is at risk of becoming, a sex trafficking victim, the department shall do all of the following:

- a. Identify the child as a sex trafficking victim or at risk of becoming a sex trafficking victim and include documentation in the child's department records.
 - b. Refer the child for appropriate services.
 - c. Refer the child identified as a sex trafficking victim, within twenty-four hours, to the appropriate law enforcement agency having jurisdiction to investigate the allegation.
- 3.3.1 Recommendation: Strengthen existing law by requiring child welfare to provide access to specialized services for all child sex trafficking victims. (See Issue Brief 3.3.)

use disorder, domestic violence, mental health, social work, child development, education, law, juvenile probation, or law enforcement, or a group established pursuant to section 235B.1 [Dependent adult abuse services], subsection 1.

The text of Iowa Code § 235A.13 cited here and elsewhere in this report includes amendments made by the enactment of Senate File 514 during the 2023-2024 Regular Session of the Iowa state legislature (effective July 1, 2023).

¹⁸ Similarly, Iowa Code § 232.71B(3)(c) (Duties of the department upon receipt of report) states,

If the department has reasonable cause to believe that a child under the placement, care, or supervision of the department is, or is at risk of becoming, a sex trafficking victim, the department shall do all of the following:

- (1) Identify the child as a sex trafficking victim or at risk of becoming a sex trafficking victim and include documentation in the child's department records.
- (2) Refer the child for appropriate services.
- (3) Refer the child identified as a sex trafficking victim, within twenty-four hours, to the appropriate law enforcement agency having jurisdiction to investigate the allegation.

Policy Goal 3.4 State law requires the juvenile justice system to provide access to specialized services for identified sex trafficked children and youth.

○ NOT MET

Iowa law does not provide access to specialized services for identified sex trafficked children and youth in the juvenile justice system.

- 3.4.1 Recommendation Statutorily require the juvenile justice system to provide access to specialized services for identified sex trafficked children and youth. (See Issue Brief 3.4.)

Policy Goal 3.5 State law extends foster care services to older foster youth.

● FULLY MET

Iowa state law extends foster care services to youth under 23 years of age. Pursuant to Iowa Code § 234.46¹⁹ (Preparation for adult living program),

1. For the purposes of this section, “young adult” means a person who is described by all of the following conditions:
 - a. The person is a resident of this state.
 - b. The person is age eighteen, nineteen, twenty, twenty-one, or twenty-two.
 - c. At the time the person became age eighteen, the person received foster care services that were paid for by the state under section 234.35, services at a state training school, services at a juvenile shelter care home, services at a juvenile detention home, or court-ordered care in accordance with chapter 232 by a relative or another person with a significant relationship with the person, and the person is no longer receiving such services or care.
 - d. The person enters into and participates in an individual self-sufficiency plan that complements the person’s own efforts for achieving self-sufficiency and the plan provides for one or more of the following:
 - (1) The person attends an accredited school full-time pursuing a course of study leading to a high school diploma.
 - (2) The person attends an instructional program leading to a high school equivalency diploma.
 - (3) The person is enrolled in or pursuing enrollment in a postsecondary education or training program or work training.
 - (4) The person is employed or seeking employment.
2. The department shall establish a preparation for adult living program directed to young adults. The purpose of the program is to assist persons who are leaving foster care and other court-ordered services at age eighteen or older in making the transition to self-sufficiency. The department shall adopt rules necessary for administration of the program, including but not limited to eligibility criteria for young adult participation and the services and other support available under the program. The rules shall provide for participation of each person who meets the definition of young adult on the same basis, regardless of whether federal financial participation is provided. The services and other support available under the program may include but are not limited to any of the following:
 - a. Support for the young adult continuing to reside with the family that provided family foster care to the young adult.
 - b. Support for a supervised apartment living arrangement.
 - c. Support for participation in education, training, or employment activities.

- d. Other assistance to enhance the young adult’s ability to achieve self-sufficiency.

Policy Goal 3.6

State funding is appropriated to support specialized services and a continuum of care for sex trafficked children regardless of system involvement.

 NOT MET

The Iowa state legislature made a non-reoccurring appropriation during the 2023-2024 session to support the Office to Combat Human Trafficking, a legislatively created body established within the Department of Public Safety to oversee and coordinate anti-trafficking efforts across the state. However, while Iowa Code § 80.45(e) (Office to Combat Human Trafficking) requires the Office to “[a]pply for or assist other governmental agencies, as assistance is needed, to apply for grants to support human trafficking enforcement, prosecutions, trainings, and victim services,” the Office itself is not required to provide for or coordinate the provision of specialized, community-based services to child and youth survivors of sex trafficking.

2023-2024 Appropriations
Bill	Recipient	Amount	Intended Purpose	Term
SF 562	Office to Combat Human Trafficking, Department of Public Safety	$200,742 + 2 FTEs	For salaries, support, maintenance, and miscellaneous purposes.	FY 2023-2024 (Non-recurring)
2023-2024 Legislative Session				July 1-June 30

- 3.6.1 Recommendation: Appropriate state funds to support the development of and access to specialized, community-based services to child and youth survivors of sex trafficking. (See Issue Brief 3.6.)

ISSUE 4: Access to Justice for Trafficking Survivors

Policy Goal 4.1 State law allows trafficking victims to seek emergency civil orders of protection.

○ NOT MET

While civil orders of protection exist under Iowa law, this protection is not expressly available to victims of child sex trafficking and CSEC.

- 4.1.1 Recommendation: Amend state law to expressly allow victims of trafficking and CSEC to obtain ex parte civil orders of protection against their exploiters. (See Issue Brief 4.1.)

Policy Goal 4.2 Ineligibility factors for crime victims' compensation do not prevent victims of child sex trafficking and commercial sexual exploitation of children (CSEC) from accessing compensation.

● PARTIALLY MET

Iowa's crime victims' compensation laws do not provide commercially sexually exploited children with exceptions to most ineligibility factors, leaving many victims without access to an award. For purposes of accessing crime victims' compensation, Iowa Code § 915.80(9)(a) (Definitions) defines "victim" to include "a person who suffers personal injury or death as a result of . . . [a] crime." "Crime" is defined under Iowa Code § 915.80(2) as follows:

[C]onduct that occurs or is attempted in this state, poses a substantial threat of personal injury or death, and is punishable as a felony or misdemeanor, or would be so punishable but for the fact that the person engaging in the conduct lacked the capacity to commit the crime under the laws of this state.

However, certain ineligibility factors may still limit a commercially sexually exploited child's ability to seek crime victims' compensation. Pursuant to Iowa Code § 915.84(1), (3)²⁰ (Application for compensation),

1. To claim compensation under the crime victim compensation program, a person shall apply in writing on a form prescribed by the department and file the application with the department within two years after the date of the crime, the discovery of the crime, or the date of death of the victim. The department may waive the time limitation if good cause is shown.

3. A person is not eligible for compensation unless the crime was reported to the local police department or county sheriff department within seventy-two hours of its occurrence. If the crime cannot reasonably be reported within that time period, the crime shall have been reported within seventy-two hours of the time a report can reasonably be made.²¹ The department may waive this requirement if good cause is shown.

Although Iowa law allows for waiver of these requirements upon a showing of good cause, nothing in this section explains what constitutes “good cause” for purposes of Iowa Code § 915.84(1), (3).

Further, Iowa Code § 915.84(7) requires “[t]he victim [to] cooperate with reasonable requests by the appropriate law enforcement agencies in the investigation or prosecution of the crime.” Lastly, Iowa Code § 915.87(2)(a) (Reductions and disqualifications) states, “Compensation shall not be made when the bodily injury or death for which a benefit is sought was caused by . . . [c]onsent, provocation, or incitement by the victim.”

Notably, Iowa law provides children engaged in commercial sexual activity with an exception to ineligibility based on “assisting, attempting, or committing a criminal act.” Iowa Code § 915.87(2)(b) states,

The victim assisting, attempting, or committing a criminal act.
This paragraph shall not apply to a victim under the age of eighteen involved in commercial sexual activity²² as defined in section 710A.1 [Definitions].

Because child sex trafficking and CSEC victims are not expressly exempt from the other ineligibility factors noted above, however, some commercially sexually exploited children still may not have access to an award.

- 4.2.1 Recommendation: Statutorily exempt victims of child sex trafficking and CSEC from ineligibility factors for crime victims’ compensation. (See Issue Brief 4.2.)

Policy Goal 4.3 Sex trafficked children and youth may vacate delinquency adjudications and criminal convictions for any offense arising from trafficking victimization.

 NOT MET

Iowa law does not allow sex trafficked children and youth to vacate delinquency adjudications or criminal convictions for offenses arising from trafficking victimization.

- 4.3.1 Recommendation: Amend state law to allow sex trafficked children and youth to vacate delinquency adjudications and criminal convictions for any offense arising from trafficking victimization. (See Issue Brief 4.3.)

Notwithstanding subsection 3, a victim under the age of eighteen or dependent adult as defined in section 235B.2 who has been sexually abused or subjected to any other unlawful sexual conduct under chapter 709 [Sexual offenses] or 726 [Protection of the family and dependent persons] or who has been the subject of a forcible felony is not required to report the crime to the local police department or county sheriff department to be eligible for compensation if the crime was allegedly committed upon a child by a person responsible for the care of a child, as defined in section 232.68, subsection 8, or upon a dependent adult by a caretaker as defined in section 235B.2, and was reported to an employee of the department of health and human services and the employee verifies the report to the department.

²² Iowa Code § 710A.1(1) (Definitions) defines “commercial sexual activity” as “any sex act or sexually explicit performance for which anything of value is given, promised to, or received by any person and includes, but is not limited to, prostitution, participation in the production of pornography, and performance in strip clubs.”

Policy Goal 4.4

State law mandates restitution for child sex trafficking and commercial sexual exploitation of children (CSEC) offenses.

● FULLY MET

Iowa law requires an offender convicted of a child sex trafficking or CSEC offense to pay restitution. Pursuant to Iowa Code § 910.2(1) (Restitution or community service to be ordered by sentencing court),

a. In all criminal cases in which there is a plea of guilty, verdict of guilty, or special verdict upon which a judgment of conviction is rendered, the sentencing court shall order that pecuniary damages²³ be paid by each offender to the victims of the offender's criminal activities, and that all other restitution be paid to the clerk of court subject to the following:

(1) Pecuniary damages and category "A" restitution²⁴ shall be ordered without regard to an offender's reasonable ability to make payments.

(2) Category "B" restitution²⁵ shall be ordered subject to an offender's reasonable ability to make payments pursuant to section 910.2A.

c. In structuring a plan of restitution, the plan of payment shall provide for payments in the following order of priority:

(1) Pecuniary damages to the victim.

(2) Category "A" restitution.

(3) Category "B" restitution in the following order:

(a) Crime victim compensation program reimbursement.

(b) Public agencies.

(c) Court costs.

(d) Court-appointed attorney fees ordered pursuant to section 815.9, including the expense of a public defender.

(e) Contribution to a local anticrime organization.

(f) The medical assistance program.

Iowa Code § 915.100(1), (2)(a)–(i) (Victim restitution rights) reinforces this requirement, stating,

²³ Iowa Code § 910.1(6) (Definitions) defines "pecuniary damages" as follows:

[A]ll damages to the extent not paid by an insurer on an insurance claim by the victim, which a victim could recover against the offender in a civil action arising out of the same facts or event, except punitive damages and damages for pain, suffering, mental anguish, and loss of consortium. Without limitation, "pecuniary damages" includes damages for wrongful death and expenses incurred for psychiatric or psychological services or counseling or other counseling for the victim which became necessary as a direct result of the criminal activity.

²⁴ Iowa Code § 910.1(1) defines "category 'A' restitution" as "fines, penalties, and surcharges."

²⁵ Iowa Code § 910.1(2) defines "category 'B' restitution" as follows:

[T]he contribution of funds to a local anticrime organization which provided assistance to law enforcement in an offender's case, the payment of crime victim compensation program reimbursements, payment of restitution to public agencies pursuant to section 321J.2, subsection 13, paragraph "b", court costs, court-appointed attorney fees ordered pursuant to section 815.9, including the expense of a public defender, and payment to the medical assistance program pursuant to chapter 249A for expenditures paid on behalf of the victim resulting from the offender's criminal activities including investigative costs incurred by the Medicaid fraud control unit pursuant to section 249A.50.

1. Victims,²⁶ as defined in section 910.1 [Definitions], have the right to recover pecuniary damages, as defined in section 910.1.
2. The right to restitution includes the following:
 - a. In all criminal cases in which there is a plea of guilty, verdict of guilty, or special verdict upon which a judgment of conviction is rendered, the sentencing court shall order that restitution be made by each offender to victims of the offender's criminal activities.
 - i. The right to victim restitution for the pecuniary damages incurred by a victim as the result of a crime does not limit or impair the right of the victim to sue and recover damages from the offender in a civil action.

With regard to trafficking cases, Iowa Code § 710A.4(2) (Restitution – Restorative expenses) specifies,

The gross income of a defendant or the value of labor or services performed by a victim of the defendant shall be considered when determining restitution pursuant to chapter 910. For purposes of this section, restitution may include restorative expenses²⁷ for a period not to exceed three years as approved and ordered by the court.

EXTRA CREDIT

Iowa law mandates restitution for victims of child labor trafficking under Iowa Code § 910.2, which applies broadly to any offense.

Policy Goal 4.5 State law provides child sex trafficking victims with a trafficking-specific civil remedy.

 NOT MET

Iowa law does not expressly allow victims of child sex trafficking to pursue civil remedies against their exploiters.

- 4.5.1 Recommendation: Amend state law to provide child sex trafficking victims with a trafficking-specific civil remedy. (See Issue Brief 4.5.)

Policy Goal 4.6 Statutes of limitation for criminal and civil actions for child sex trafficking or commercial sexual exploitation of children (CSEC) offenses are eliminated to allow prosecutors and victims a realistic opportunity to pursue criminal action and legal remedies.

 PARTIALLY MET

Child sex trafficking prosecutions may commence at any time; however, prosecutions for Iowa's CSEC offenses are subject to a statute of limitation. Pursuant to Iowa Code § 802.2D (Human trafficking), "An information or

²⁶ Iowa Code § 910.1(11) defines "victim" as "a person who has suffered pecuniary damages as a result of the offender's criminal activities."

²⁷ Iowa Code § 710A.4(1) defines "restorative expenses" as "the projected costs of education, vocational training, medical health, mental health, transportation, housing, child care, or other projected costs that will aid in a victim's recovery."

indictment for human trafficking in violation of section 710A.2 [Human trafficking], committed on or with a person who is under the age of eighteen years may be commenced at any time after the commission of the offense.” Otherwise, Iowa Code § 802.3 (Felony – Aggravated or serious misdemeanor) establishes a 3-year statute of limitation “for a felony or aggravated or serious misdemeanor.”

Regarding civil actions, Iowa law does not provide child sex trafficking victims with a trafficking-specific civil remedy.

- 4.6.1 Recommendation: Strengthen existing law to allow prosecutions for CSEC offenses to commence at any time and eliminate the statute of limitation for filing trafficking-specific civil actions.²⁸ (See Issue Brief 4.6.)

²⁸ The recommendation in this Policy Goal is predicated upon the recommendation in Policy Goal 4.5 being simultaneously or previously enacted.

ISSUE 5: Tools for a Victim-Centered Criminal Justice Response

Policy Goal 5.1

Non-testimonial evidence may be admitted through a child sex trafficking-specific hearsay exception to reduce reliance of victim testimony.

○ NOT MET

Iowa law does not allow non-testimonial, out-of-court statements made by a commercially sexually exploited child to be admitted into evidence in lieu of, or for the purpose of corroborating, the child's testimony.

- 5.1.1 Recommendation: Statutorily provide a hearsay exception that applies to non-testimonial evidence in cases involving commercial sexual exploitation of children under 18 years of age. (See Issue Brief 5.1.)

Policy Goal 5.2

State law provides child sex trafficking victims with alternatives to live, in-court testimony regardless of the prosecuted offense.

● FULLY MET

Iowa law provides commercially sexually exploited children with an alternative to live, in-court testimony. Iowa Code § 915.38(1), (2) (Televised, videotaped, and recorded evidence – Limited court testimony – Minors and others) states,

1.
 - a. Upon its own motion or upon motion of any party, a court may protect a minor,²⁹ as defined in section 599.1 [Period of minority – Exception for certain inmates], from trauma caused by testifying in the physical presence of the defendant where it would impair the minor's ability to communicate, by ordering that the testimony of the minor be taken in a room other than the courtroom and be televised by closed-circuit equipment for viewing in the courtroom. However, such an order shall be entered only upon a specific finding by the court that such measures are necessary to protect the minor from trauma
2. The court may, upon its own motion or upon motion of a party, order that the testimony of a minor, as defined in section 599.1, be taken by recorded deposition for use at trial, pursuant to rule of criminal procedure 2.13(2)(b) [Issuance of warrants]. In addition to requiring that such testimony be recorded by stenographic means, the court may on motion and hearing, and upon a finding that the minor is unavailable as provided in rule of evidence 5.804(a), order the videotaping of the minor's testimony for viewing in the courtroom by the court. The videotaping shall comply with the provisions of rule of criminal procedure 2.13(2)(b), and shall be admissible as evidence in the trial

²⁹ Iowa Code § 599.1(1) (Period of minority – Exception for certain inmates) states, "The period of minority extends to the age of eighteen years, but all minors attain their majority by marriage."

EXTRA CREDIT

Iowa Code § 915.38 permits victims of child labor trafficking to testify by an alternative method since this protection is not limited to victims of specific offenses.

Policy Goal 5.3 Child sex trafficking victims have access to victim protections in the criminal justice system.

● FULLY MET

	Child sex trafficking victims have the right to a victim advocate	Child sex trafficking victims testifying against their exploiter are provided supports in the courtroom	Child sex trafficking victims' identifying information is protected from disclosure in court records
Summary	Crime victims have the right to an advocate. Advocates may accompany victims to all court appearances, investigation interviews, and proceedings.	Courts can limit the duration of a child's testimony to one hour with a break.	The identity of the child or any information reasonably likely to disclose the identity of the child shall not be released to the public by any public employee except as authorized by the court.
Relevant Statute(s)	Iowa Code § 915.20(a), (b)(2) (Presence of victim counselors)	Iowa Code § 915.38 (Televised, videotaped, and recorded evidence – Limited court testimony – Minors and others)	Iowa Code § 915.36(1)–(2) (Protection of child victim's privacy)

Policy Goal 5.4 State law provides for privileged communications between caseworkers and child sex trafficking victims.

● FULLY MET

Iowa law provides for a child sex trafficking-specific caseworker privilege that protects a child sex trafficking victim's communications with their caseworker from being disclosed. Under Iowa Code § 915.20A(2), (7) (Victim counselor privilege),

2. A victim counselor³⁰ shall not be examined or required to give evidence in any civil or criminal proceeding as to any confidential communication³¹ made by a victim to the counselor, nor shall a clerk, secretary, stenographer, or any other employee who types or otherwise prepares or manages the confidential reports or working papers of a victim counselor be required to produce evidence of any such confidential communication, unless the victim waives this privilege in writing or disclosure of the information is compelled by a court pursuant to subsection 7

7. Upon the motion of a party, accompanied by a written offer of proof, a court may compel disclosure of certain information if the court determines that all of the following conditions are met:
- a. The information sought is relevant and material evidence of the facts and circumstances involved in an alleged criminal act which is the subject of a criminal proceeding.
 - b. The probative value of the information outweighs the harmful effect, if any, of disclosure on the victim, the counseling relationship, and the treatment services.
 - c. The information cannot be obtained by reasonable means from any other source.

Iowa Code § 915.20A(1)(c) defines “victim” as “a person who consults a victim counselor for the purpose of securing advice, counseling, or assistance concerning a mental, physical, or emotional condition caused by a violent crime committed against the person.” The definition of “violent crime” under Iowa Code § 915.10(5) (Definitions) refers to the definition of “forcible felony” as defined under Iowa Code § 702.11(1) (Forcible felony), which includes “any felonious child endangerment, assault, murder, sexual abuse, kidnapping, robbery, human trafficking,³² arson in the first degree, or burglary in the first degree.”

³⁰ Iowa Code § 915.20A(1)(d) defines “victim counselor” as follows:

[A] person who is engaged in a crime victim center, is certified as a counselor by the crime victim center, and is under the control of a direct services supervisor of a crime victim center, whose primary purpose is the rendering of advice, counseling, and assistance to the victims of crime. To qualify as a “victim counselor” under this section, the person must also have completed at least twenty hours of training provided by the center in which the person is engaged, by the Iowa organization of victim assistance, by the Iowa coalition against sexual assault, or by the Iowa coalition against domestic violence, which shall include but not be limited to, the dynamics of victimization, substantive laws relating to violent crime, sexual assault, and domestic violence, crisis intervention techniques, communication skills, working with diverse populations, an overview of the state criminal justice system, information regarding pertinent hospital procedures, and information regarding state and community resources for victims of crime.

Iowa Code § 915.20A(1)(b) defines “crime victim center” as “any office, institution, agency, or crisis center offering assistance to victims of crime and their families through crisis intervention, accompaniment during medical and legal proceedings, and follow-up counseling.”

³¹ Iowa Code § 915.20A(1)(a) defines “confidential communication” as follows:

[I]nformation shared between a crime victim and a victim counselor within the counseling relationship, and includes all information received by the counselor and any advice, report, or working paper given to or prepared by the counselor in the course of the counseling relationship with the victim. “Confidential information” is confidential information which, so far as the victim is aware, is not disclosed to a third party with the exception of a person present in the consultation for the purpose of furthering the interest of the victim, a person to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for the transmission of the information, or a person with whom disclosure is necessary for accomplishment of the purpose for which the counselor is consulted by the victim.

³² Iowa Code § 710A.1(4) (Definitions) defines “human trafficking” to include the following:

- a. . . . participating in a venture to recruit, harbor, transport, supply provisions, or obtain a person for any of the following purposes:

Additionally, state law protects communications made between certain mental and behavioral health professionals and patients, broadly, allowing child sex trafficking victims who receive services from such professionals to benefit from the privilege.

Statute	Professional	Relevant Limitations
Iowa Code § 622.10 (Communications in professional confidence – Exceptions – Required consent to release of medical records after commencement of legal action – Application to court)	Counselor and mental health professional, including licensed psychologist, licensed social worker, family therapist, mental health counselor, licensed guidance counselor	Very limited situations in which the privileged records are believed to contain exculpatory information.

EXTRA CREDIT

Iowa law prevents disclosure of confidential communications made between a sex trafficking victim and their caseworker under Iowa Code § 915.20A regardless of the victim's age.

Iowa law prevents disclosure of confidential communications made between a child labor trafficking victim and their caseworker under Iowa Code § 915.20A, which makes this protection available to victims of “violent crimes,” including human trafficking victims. Importantly, Iowa Code § 710A.1(4) (Definitions) defines “human trafficking” to include both sex and labor trafficking.

- (1) Forced labor or service that results in involuntary servitude, peonage, debt bondage, or slavery.
 - (2) Commercial sexual activity through the use of force, fraud, or coercion, except that if the trafficked person is under the age of eighteen, the commercial sexual activity need not involve force, fraud, or coercion.
 - b. . . knowingly purchasing or attempting to purchase services involving commercial sexual activity from a victim or another person engaged in human trafficking.

ISSUE 6: Prevention & Training

Policy Goal 6.1

State law mandates statewide training for child welfare agencies on identification and response to child sex trafficking.

 PARTIALLY MET

Iowa law authorizes statewide training for governmental agencies on identification and response to human trafficking. Pursuant to Iowa Code § 80.45(3)(f) (Office to combat human trafficking), “The [Office to Combat Human Trafficking] shall . . . [r]esearch and recommend trainings to assist governmental agencies to identify and respond appropriately to human trafficking victims.” Resultingly, resources and training regarding human trafficking may be, or become, available for use by child welfare. However, Iowa law does not statutorily require individuals employed by child welfare to receive such training.

- 6.1.1 Recommendation: Statutorily mandate statewide training for child welfare agencies on identification and response to child sex trafficking. (See Issue Brief 6.1.)

Policy Goal 6.2

State law mandates statewide training for juvenile justice agencies on identification and response to child sex trafficking.

 PARTIALLY MET

Iowa law authorizes statewide training for governmental agencies on identification and response to human trafficking. Pursuant to Iowa Code § 80.45(3)(f) (Office to combat human trafficking), “The [Office to Combat Human Trafficking] shall . . . [r]esearch and recommend trainings to assist governmental agencies to identify and respond appropriately to human trafficking victims.” Resultingly, resources and training regarding child sex trafficking may be, or become, available for use by juvenile justice agencies. However, Iowa law does not statutorily require individuals employed by juvenile justice agencies to receive such training.

- 6.2.1 Recommendation: Statutorily mandate statewide training for juvenile justice agencies on identification and response to child sex trafficking. (See Issue Brief 6.2.)

Policy Goal 6.3

State law mandates ongoing, trafficking-specific training on victim-centered investigations for law enforcement.

 PARTIALLY MET

Iowa law mandates trafficking-specific training for law enforcement; however, officers are not statutorily required to receive ongoing in-service training on human trafficking. Pursuant to Iowa Code § 80B.11(1)(e) (Rules),

The director of the academy, subject to the approval of the council, shall promulgate rules in accordance with the provisions of this chapter [Law enforcement academy] and chapter 17A [Iowa administrative procedure act], giving due consideration to varying factors and special requirements of law enforcement agencies relative to the following:

....

- e. Training standards on the subject of human trafficking, to include curricula on cultural sensitivity and the means to deal effectively and appropriately with trafficking victims. Such training shall encourage law enforcement personnel to communicate in the language of the trafficking victims. The course of instruction and training standards shall be developed by the director in consultation with the appropriate national and state experts in the field of human trafficking.³³

Additional training is provided for pursuant to Iowa Code § 710A.6 (Outreach, public awareness, and training program), which states,

The crime victim assistance division of the department of justice, in cooperation with other governmental agencies and nongovernmental or community organizations, shall develop and conduct outreach, public awareness, and training programs for the general public, law enforcement agencies, first responders, potential victims, and persons conducting or regularly dealing with businesses or other ventures that have a high statistical incidence of debt bondage or forced labor or services. The programs shall train participants to recognize and report incidents of human trafficking and to suppress the demand that fosters exploitation of persons and leads to human trafficking.

Lastly, Senate File 562, § 10(3) (2023)³⁴ appropriates funds for the 2023-2024 fiscal year to be used for law enforcement training on human trafficking; it provides,

The Iowa law enforcement academy shall provide training for domestic abuse and human trafficking-related issues throughout the state. The training shall be offered at no cost to the attendees and the training shall not replace any existing domestic abuse or human trafficking training offered by the academy.

As noted above, however, human trafficking-related training is not required to be ongoing.

- 6.3.1 Recommendation: Statutorily mandate ongoing, trafficking-specific training on victim-centered investigations for law enforcement. (See Issue Brief 6.3.)

Policy Goal 6.4 State law mandates trafficking-specific training on victim-centered investigations and prosecutions for prosecutors.

 NOT MET

Iowa law does not mandate trafficking-specific training on victim-centered investigations and prosecutions for prosecutors.³⁵

- 6.4.1 Recommendation: Statutorily mandate trafficking-specific training on victim-centered investigations and prosecutions for prosecutors. (See Issue Brief 6.4.)

³³ Funding for academy level training is provided for under Iowa Code § 915.94(1)(d) (Victim compensation fund), which states in part, “the department may use moneys from the [victim compensation fund] . . . [f]or reimbursement to the Iowa law enforcement academy for . . . human trafficking training.” Further, Iowa Code § 915.95 (Human trafficking victim fund) provides, “A fund is created as a separate fund in the state treasury. Moneys deposited in the fund shall be administered by the department and dedicated to and used for . . . reimbursing the Iowa law enforcement academy for . . . human trafficking training”

³⁴ Senate File 562, § 10 cited here and elsewhere in this report was enacted during the 2023-2024 Regular Session of the Iowa state legislature.

³⁵ Notably, Enacted Senate File 562, § 30(1)(i) (2023) established a human trafficking interim study committee and tasked the committee with “mak[ing] recommendations on appropriate human trafficking-related training for law enforcement officers, county attorneys, and juvenile service officers.” Senate File 562, § 30 cited here and elsewhere in this report was enacted during the 2023-2024 Regular Session of the Iowa state legislature.

Policy Goal 6.5 State law mandates child sex trafficking training for school personnel.

○ NOT MET

Iowa law does not mandate training on child sex trafficking for school personnel.

- 6.5.1 Recommendation: Statutorily mandate trafficking-specific prevention education training for school personnel. (See Issue Brief 6.5.)

Policy Goal 6.6 State law mandates child sex trafficking prevention education in schools.

○ NOT MET

Iowa law does not mandate child sex trafficking prevention education in schools.

- 6.6.1 Recommendation: Statutorily mandate developmentally and age-appropriate child sex trafficking prevention education in schools. (See Issue Brief 6.6.)
